Forecast for Fiscal 2025

The global economy in fiscal 2025 is expected to see a continued spending increase, but growth is anticipated to remain moderate due primarily to continued monetary tightening in various countries and regions, mainly in Europe and the U.S., and the real estate recession in China. There is also an increase in geopolitical risks, including the prolonged conflict in Ukraine and the tensions between the U.S. and China, which raises a concern about changes in business environment beyond expectations.

Under these circumstances, the Mitsubishi Electric Group will focus its management on asset efficiency and cash-generating capabilities by utilizing ROIC in its business operations. This will enable the Group to carry out active investments speedily in its Key Growth Businesses such as enhancing its production system and M&A, while strongly promoting a resource shift approach based on its business portfolio strategy, including by considering potential withdrawals from and sale of businesses with issues that are not expected to improve their profitability or asset efficiency. Furthermore, the Group will promote efforts to optimize its global engineering and supply chains as well as to improve group management efficiency. In addition, it will ensure that its operations flexibly cope with the changing business environment in light of recent economic trends.
